VICTOR H. METCALF IS NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

THIRD DISTRICT NAMES A WINNER.

Delegates From the Interior Greet Congressman With Cheers.

FOR CONGRESS

Third District

VICTOR H. METCALF

The Republicans of the Third Congressional District have named Victor H. Metcalf of Alameda county as their standard bearer in the November battle.

It has been a foregone conclusion that this would be the eventuality ever since the overwhelming victory gained by Mr. Metcalf in the primary elections. The delegates met in Turn Verein Hall today merely to record the verdict registered already by the Republicans of the district.

Victor H. Metcalf was renominated by acclamation. There was great enthusiasm. The nomination speech was made by W. H. Chickering and was a stirring effort. A. W. North of Yolo made a stirring seconding speech.

In the morning the proceedings were rather tame because the result was known in advance. Nevertheless lively interest was manifested, and many evidences of Mr. Metcalf's popularity were given.

The delegates from all the counties reported that Mr. Metcalf would run ahead of his ticket throughout the district. He ran ahead two thousand two years ago, and the reports indicate an increased majority in every county.

The Solano delegation cut quite a gay figure with their orange badges, and the naval band in their bright blue uniforms. The first thing they did was to play a few lively tunes in front Metcalf's office, and when they marched down they stopped to give the Tribune the compliment of a popular air.

It was nearly 12 o'clock when the Republican Convention of the Third Congressional District assembled in Germania Hall. The delegates marched to the hall behind the band of the Receiving Ship Independence, from Mare Island, which the Solano delegation had brought down with them. At the hall there was a long wait while preliminaries were arranged.

After effecting temporary organization the convention adjourned till 1:30, but did not reassemble till 2. After that the proceedings were rapid.

The Assembly District conventions disposed of their work rapidly. The nominations were made without contest in the four districts booked to nominate today, as follows:

Forty-eighth District—Joseph M. Kelley.

Forty-ninth District—David McWade.

Fiftieth District—J. A. Bliss.

Fifty-first District—N. K. Foster.

SOLANO COUNTY DELEGATES HERE

Bring Their Own Band and Serenade the "Tribune."

The Solano county delegates to the Congressional Convention arrived at Sixteenth street station at 10 o'clock. They brought with them the band of the United States Receiving Ship Independence, numbering fourteen pieces, and along the line of march to Germania Hall both delegates and band were accorded a warm reception.

In front of Mr. Metcalf's headquarters a half was made and a short serenade of patriotic airs was given. This was repeated before Judge Nusbaumer's office and also in front of the Tribune office. The delegation was headed by Senator J. J. Luchsinger.

SOME OF THE MEN WHO WERE WATCHING THINGS

The Solano delegation, with yellow badges, headed by the band of the United States Ship Independence, were received with cheer when they entered the hall.

Major J. L. Bromley with his tall hat well back on his forehead was one of the earliest delegates to take his seat. His eighty years of life and 40 years of Republicanism seem to rest lightly on his shoulders.

Colonel George Babcock of Alameda had a smile of contentment upon his face as if in contemplation of the success of Mr. Metcalf in the primaries to which he had contributed something of his time and effort.

Ex-Councilman Heitmann was in the thickest of the conversational throngs with the perennial cigar between the fore-finger and thumb of his right hand. He was an ardent Metcalf man at the primaries and his ready money "talked" opponents into silence. He put up a good front.

Congressman Metcalf reached the scene about the same time that the Solano delegation made its appearance. He was immediately surrounded by admirers and introductions almost innumerable were the result.

Emil Nusbaumer, the presiding genius of the campaign, modestly walked into

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The War Department announced early in the day that it was in receipt of a casualty list from General Chaffee, and this was made public about noon. It was learned, however, that the Chaffee dispatch contained a considerable amount of matter beside the list of killed and wounded, and it was the subject of an extended White House conference between the President, Secretary Root and Acting Secretary of State Ade.

It was hoped by the officials that the receipt of detailed news from General Chaffee would simplify the situation considerably and enable this govern-

Barry resided at Thirty-ninth street and Telegraph avenue, where he conducted a saloon. Yesterday morning he claimed to be suffering from cramps in the stomach, and at his request Richard Comerford, a man addicted to the use of morphine, injected a dose of the drug in the region of the pain. This was at 8 A. M.

The Republican Congressional Convention was called to order a little after noon by J. L. Geary, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, who spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Republican Third Congressional Convention: You have met pursuant to the call of your committee and the voice of the Republicans of the Third Congressional District for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress from this district.

"It is neither my purpose nor privilege to make a speech at this time. But the two years so nearly past have been years of great importance to the present and future interests not only of our own district and commonwealth but of the entire country.

"We have witnessed great strides in the development and growth in the various interests of the country, as well as in the prosperity and contentment of our people.

"During the four years of the present Administration great historical events have occurred which will ever remain a heritage to future generations and a lasting monument to the wisdom and statesmanlike sagacity of our beloved and patriotic President, Wm. McKinley, and his co-workers, who have directed the great undertakings of his Administration.

"I can but congratulate you as delegates of this convention and the entire people of our district and commonwealth upon the general conditions of prosperity which exist in all parts of the country, which conditions are due entirely to the policies and the enforcement of the principles of the grand old Republican party, and I am confident that the American people, in the coming election, will express their confidence in the wisdom of our policies and leaders. I am confident that the people will not only congratulate the Republican party that it is the party of the people and entrust it to for the next four years the administration of the affairs of the Nation.

"Gentlemen of the convention, your duty is plain. While we are confident we should not be over confident but leave nothing undone to secure for our candidates the success they deserve." (Cheers.)

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

Mr. Geary then said that nominations for temporary chairman would be in order.

Giles H. Gray placed in nomination for the position Senator J. J. Luchsinger of Solano county.

The nomination was greeted with cheers.

When the chair asked if there were any more names to be mentioned for the place, the nominations were, on motion declared closed.

Senator Luchsinger was then elected chairman by acclamation.

On motion, Messrs. Gray of Oakland, Kavanaugh of Solano and Veale of Contra Costa were appointed a committee to escort Senator Luchsinger to the chair.

When the Senator made his appearance on the stage he was greeted with applause and was introduced by Committee Chairman Geary.

THE SENATOR SPEAKS.

"Fellow Republicans and Members of the Third Congressional Convention: I feel highly the honor you have conferred on me in electing me to this position of a position that was entirely unexpected. It was so insignificant and so unexpected that I am not able to make any extended speech. Even if I were prepared, it is doubtful I should wish to take up your time on this occasion.

"We have before us a number of very important questions. They are questions that are of interest to the life of the nation itself. We ought to show that we are in sympathy with the Administration. I did not think I would accept this position when I was tendered it because I was a little worried, however, because when gentlemen address the chair they will speak as loud as possible, so as to enable me to understand what they say."

BROWN FOR SECRETARY.

Chairman Luchsinger then stated that he would entertain a motion for the election of secretary of the convention.

Dr. Rowell of Berkeley placed in nomination for the position Everett Brown.

The nominations were closed and Mr.

Work Resumed on de Fremery Building.

Mr. Wilkie Hands His Contract Over to His Partner.

Work was resumed on the de Fremery block on Washington street this morning and it is now thought will be completed within a week. Andrew Wilkie, one of the contractors alleged to be "unfair," has made an assignment of all his interests to the contract to his contracting partner, Daniel Faulkner.

This proposition was submitted several days ago and nothing had been done by the Building Trades Council claimed that the assignment was not made in good faith, that it was a mere subterfuge. Since that time Mr. Wilkie has had drawn and acknowledged before a Notary public the assignment to the attorney for the council pronounced legal and a valid conveyance of all Mr. Wilkie's interest in the contract.

This morning Contractor Faulkner came on the ground with the stone mason and engine and steam was raised in the derrick boiler. Before a wheel was turned J. H. Mullin, business agent of the Council, passed the word to the men to do no work until an opinion was had on the legality of the assignment. This was obtained and the instrument being signed with the County Clerk, work was allowed to proceed at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. Wilkie, it will be remembered is the owner of a nine-hour planing mill in San Francisco. Architect Percy has given his word to withdraw from the building and engaged another to take his place. The Council, met last night with the Alameda County Association of Mill owners, and for over two hours discussed the situation in all its phases, without definite results other than that each party better understands the position of the other.

The meeting of all mill owners on both sides of the bay, to be held in San Francisco today may result in something definite, but it is not expected. Unless the contractor, the Building Exchange and Lumber Dealers' Association exert their influence, it is probable that the strike may continue indefinitely.

BLOODY WORK IN PEKING.

ment to move out in a large degree its future line of action in China. This was not the case, however. General Chaffee's telegram indicated that there may yet be considerable heavy fighting around Peking and between that city and the coast. It was impossible to make any prediction as to the date of the pacification on the information thus far furnished, and the Administration is not able to fix upon the date for the withdrawal of troops from Chinese territory.

While the White House conference was in progress the Chinese Minister arrived at the State Department. Secretary Adele was absent and the Minister waited patiently two hours in the expectation that the answer to Li Hung Chang would be handed to him.

Bloody work has been going on in Peking, according to a dispatch received today by the Navy Department from Admiral Remey, dated Taku, the 20th and Peking, the 16th. The message shows that the American forces were then fighting along with the allies and that progress had been made which could only have been accomplished after military efforts of a severe character.

Officials of the War Department who are familiar with the physical conditions of the defenses of Peking say that the fact that all but the imperial city had been cleared of Chinese troops is evidence enough of the severe fighting which must have occurred. In order for the American troops to penetrate to the gates of the palace they must have stormed a wall about thirty feet high, which no doubt was stubbornly defended.

It is a source of satisfaction to the military officials here that the allied commanders succeeded in clearing the region outside of the imperial city of Chinese troops, as thereby the danger of attacks on the flanks and rear would be obviated.

Admiral Remey's dispatch, in stating that all but the imperial city had been cleared of the Chinese soldiery, left the impression that a force of defenders was still entrenched in that section of Peking and would have to be routed out.

General Chaffee's brief report stated that he entered the legation grounds at 5 o'clock on the evening of the 14th and that eight men were wounded in the day's fighting. Admiral Remey's dispatch shows that within the next two days General Chaffee lost six men killed, including Captain Reilly of the Fifth Artillery, and thirty men wounded. To all appears the fighting in Peking was more severe after the entry into the city than during the movements which brought the Americans to the legation gates. This may be explained by the evident fact that the rescuing parties were engaged in clearing the outer city of the Chinese soldiery. Such a task could not have been a light one, owing to the presence of large bodies of Chinese troops in the city and the means at hand of fortifying themselves in the narrow streets of the main city and behind the wall of the imperial city.

Admiral Remey's dispatch also shows that there is further fighting outside of Peking, and that the Boxers have not been dispersed but are still inclined to hang on the outskirts of the invaders and harass them as far as possible. It would seem to presage more fighting for the allies, if they should attempt to return from Peking, and for the reinforcement which would be sent to Tien Tsin and Peking. Evidently, according to the military authorities, the country about Tien Tsin and between that city and Peking still harbors hostile forces which will have to be overcome by the allies before the road can be opened from Peking to the sea.

LOSSES OF THE AMERICANS IN PEKING FIGHT.

(Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Remey:

"CHEFOO, August 22.—Taku, August 19.—All except imperial city is cleared of Chinese troops. The American troops were the first to enter the imperial city. They have penetrated to the gates of the Palace. Captain Reilly, First Lieutenant, U.S.A., was killed. On the morning of the 19th the Sixth Cavalry and about 400 English and Japanese dispersed about 1,000 Boxers eight miles outside of Tien Tsin. About 100 Chinese killed; five Americans wounded. Chaffee's losses, six killed, thirty wounded, two days' fighting."

"REMEY." The Navy Department understands from the reference to the Paixie that the American troops after penetrating the imperial city were, when the dispatch was sent, attacking the forbidden city. This is the inner inclosure of the imperial city.

BEST FLAG OF FRATERNAL ORDERS

The Eloquent Tribute of Past Supreme Master Workman William H. Jordan.

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the introduction of the Order of United American Workmen into California, came to a close with exercises in the First Presbyterian Church last night. The auditorium was filled with people.

Lawrence Nolan of California Lodge No. 1 presided. He spoke of the good the order had done during the past twenty years. It had been in existence in this State, of the men who had devoted themselves to it during those years and especially of those who were present at the exercises. He referred in a sketchy manner to William H. Jordan, the first grandmaster of the order who was on the platform and on the program as one of the speakers of the evening.

Integesting addresses were also delivered by Grand Master Workman Snook, Past Grand Master Workman Barnes.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

W. H. Jordan, on being introduced, was received with applause. He spoke as follows:

"Grand Master Workmen and Gentlemen—Having been an active participant in the events which marked the early history-making period of the Ancient Order of United Workmen upon this coast, I presume that I must now be content to be relegated to the background of the historical scenes which have passed away. What power would there be about us that the A. O. U. was no humbug? But somehow, no one seemed to want to lead on in an effort to settle the vexed question by that sort of a demonstration, though several of them were made."

He then spoke of the enthusiasm for the order actually sent for the Funeral Committee just to see what effect its arrival would have upon its nervous system.

POLICE TO THE RESCUE.

At length the Oakland Police Department organization, ever alert and ready, though without much discrimination, to help a struggling community either to live or die, came to the rescue and so arranged matters that a man on the force, who was also a member of the Ancient Order, No. 1, was with him. This started the ball rolling. Brother Pratt at once sent for the $2,000. A public meeting was held in one of the largest halls in West Oakland. Enthusiastic speeches were made and the contributions by the act of payment of the coin-toss it was no humbug and that its promises to pay were entitled to as much credit as the best of bankable paper.

LOGDES GREW.

"After this the lodge grew more rapidly. New lodges were soon organized. A Grand Lodge was formed and the Ancient Order of United Workmen became a permanent factor in the fraternal fabric of California life, and is a master of just pride that in the quarter of a century that has followed the A. O. U. has spread from coast to coast, and has become the largest organization in the world. In these are only a few of us left, yet we nevertheless belong to a very respectable and aristocratic class.

Our Grand Master, with an enthusiasm that is truly inspiring and a zeal which far exceeds his predecessor, has ever excelled, has wisely ordered that this day should be set apart by the lodges of Alameda county as a gala day; a day upon which, by games, songs and speeches and this round demonstration, they might celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the planting of the banner of Workmanship in the soil of California.

SNOOK, REST GRAND MASTER.

"We shall certainly all agree that it was a happy circumstance that the Grand Lodge was established west in Oakland; that this city, which has ever been so justly proud of her past contributions to the literature, the science, the education, and the culture of the Pacific Coast, has been selected as the home of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen; as the American Occidental birth-place of the oldest, the strongest, and the best co-operative fraternity in the world. It is also worth noting that the name of the Grand Lodge was bequeathed to the city of that good and kindly father in Workmanship, by whose self-denying services and earnest prayers we were spared upon the right road to deeds of fraternal activity, and enabled every man to come to the honor of our common country and to the glory of our race.

ADDED TO GLORY OF THE RACE.

"But it is needless that I should take up the time of the audience and of the Workmen here assembled, and further of those who are here, since the record of the good deeds of the Ancient Order of United Workmen is now a part of the history of every State and Territory of the American Union, and likewise of the British possessions upon the globe, and though, we may justly say that this great order has added to the honor of our common country and to the glory of our race.

"While it has not, and it would not take the place of any other organization for good, yet all must confess that the Workmen and everywhere supplemented the ministrations of the church, the benefactions of the philanthropist and the inspirations of the patriot.

THE MOTHER OF OTHER ORDERS.

"Not only has the order done all this, but it has become the mother of a vast number of similar organizations that now cover the land, all of which are reaping for themselves golden sheaves of wealth as well as the fruits in the refined fields of human suffering and want; but yet, none of her children, in my judgment, possess that richness of beauty, that charm of grace and that queenly bearing which characterize the distinguished members of the order, as well as the distinguished election officers from the following predictions are the duly appointed election officers thereof, to-wit:

"Polling place, 1002 Telegraph avenue—H. A. Dimpel, Everett Brown, D. Osborne.

"Polling place, 1023 San Pablo avenue—J. J. Ingols, Jack Murphy, W. F. Oerter.

"Polling place, 1617 San Pablo avenue—Thos Gilmore, George G. Mackinnon and Frank Holton.

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 22, 1900.

Three hundred and forty-one thousand ounces of American silver were shipped to England yesterday. They will probably return to us in the form of British pounds.

Li Hung Chang's peace overture has so far had little effect upon his audience. There will be a different kind of music in the air for awhile until the nations make sure that the Boxers have been entirely knocked out of the ring.

Bryan has received another ribroaster in the announcement by Senator Stewart that he is going back to the Republican ranks. With the principal mainstays of his campaign of four years ago falling away from him one by one, Bryan's grave is already deep enough to bury him, and all that remains to be done is the shoveling on election day.

Alameda county shows up well in the State roster of wealth with an assessable value of $84,997,595, an increase of $54,807 over last year. When it is remembered that this does not include the State University and the blind asylums, which are non-assessable, it can be seen that we are pretty close to the hundred million notch already, and that although Los Angeles at present leads us on paper to the extent of thirteen millions, as a matter of fact it is a neck-and-neck race.

THE SUGAR BEET CROP.

There was evidently not much to the alarmist reports that were circulated a month or so ago to the effect that the beet sugar crop is a failure this year in California. The news was a dampener at the time to those interested in the progress of the State, for after all the golden picturing that had been done as to the possibilities of the new industry it was discouraging to hear that it had been badly checked before it was even properly started.

Now, however, all this pessimism can be dispelled, as least as far as this part of the State is concerned, for the advices from Pleasanton which announce the first shipment of sugar beets for the present season state that the crop will be nearly double what it was last year. The increase, too, is not wholly due to a larger area being devoted to the crop, for the total acreage planted to beets in this section is 2,300 as against 1,700 acres in 1899. The showing, therefore, is an exceptionally excellent one when it is remembered that the climatic conditions have not been the best for beet culture, and indicates that with more favorable weather the returns would have resulted in some record breaking.

There is much depending upon the favorable development of the beet industry, for, as set forth by the State Board of Agriculture in its last treatise upon the subject, some of the most important benefits which will accrue are the growth of towns in the vicinity of the sugar factories, the cutting up and populating of vast tracts of land and the immigration of the practical farmer to California. Then there is the question of productive values to be considered, for expert examination shows that there are at present 200,000 acres of land adapted to sugar beets in the State, the output of which would be 2,500,000 tons annually, representing over $10,000,000. It is a mammoth issue for California and one that our commercial bodies and agriculturists should foster in every possible way.

THE SUPERIOR JUDGES.

From present appearances there will be no opposition to the renomination of Judges Ogden and Ellsworth. The retirement of George W. Langdon from the canvass apparently leaves them a clear field in the Republican convention. This is exceedingly gratifying especially to that large body of citizens who desire that judicial positions should not be scrambled for in the hurly-burly of politics.

Mr. Langdon is a justly popular citizen and a capable lawyer, but he discovered that Judges Ellsworth and Ogden had met popular expectation on the bench and had a strong hold on the public confidence. There was a manifest aversion to a change, and an equally manifest desire to keep them in their present positions. There was no prejudice or particular objection to others in this. The question simply put itself in this form to the average citizen: We have two good and satisfactory Judges on the bench, why should they be retired to make room for new men? The proposition is unanswerable.

It is evident that the public at large is well satisfied with Judges Ogden and Ellsworth. They are not criticised in any quarter. No objection to them is urged from any direction. They have the good opinion of all classes, and in every respect commend themselves for renomination.

It is a matter of satisfaction that Judges who perform their duties properly can succeed themselves without personal opposition. While other candidates have been suggested for judicial honors, no one has ventured to offer a single reason for retiring the two sitting magistrates. It has never been claimed that either has been derelict in any particular.

Under the circumstances the Republicans of Alameda county will do wisely to renominate them without a contest. They have vindicated the party trust and merit public confidence which has been bestowed upon them. It would be all the better if they could be elected without opposition at the polls.

WHAT THE FULL DINNER PAIL MEANS.

The Baltimore Sun scoffs at the Republican campaign cry, "Four years more of the full dinner pail." It pretends to look upon this as an appeal to the stomach instead of the reason of the workingmen.

The Sun's reasoning is shallow. The full dinner pail is an allegorical representation of peace, plenty and industry. It symbolizes the prosperity of a nation and the contentment of its citizens. It is the reverse of unrest, discontent and distress. Napoleon said: "Armies travel on their bellies." So does civilization. The empty dinner pail wrecks governments and overthrows dynasties. It is a danger signal in all lands. It denotes the absence of prosperity and content. It is the sign manual of idleness and poverty. It means the degradation of manhood, a wasting of the vital forces of a nation. While individuals are starving the nation is suffering from an industrial paralysis.

No dinner in the workingman's pail means no money in the Government's treasury. The man who has no money to buy food cannot pay taxes. National weakness comes from lowering the standard of living, and productive forces lessen with a shortening of the food supply. It was the empty dinner pail that precipitated the French Revolution and plunged Europe into a war that lasted twenty years.

"Four years more of the full dinner pail" is an appeal to the best reason and the highest patriotism. It is an exhortation not to plunge a prosperous and happy people into the throes of poverty and degradation. It sets the hum of the factory above the yawp of the demagogue. It typifies the fact that the best patriot is the man who has plenty of work and plenty to eat, and is a homely illustration of the truth that a nation is strong in proportion to the standard of living prevailing among its people. The full dinner pail means business. It means order, home comforts, money in the bank and a dollar to spend on the babies occasionally. There are good clothes, a contribution for the church and a subscription to the paper in it. There is wealth, power and progress under the lid. The workingman's stomach is the barometer of a nation's greatness.

SILVER MEN DESERT BRYAN.

The abandonment of Bryan by Senator Stewart of Nevada was one of the things that might have been expected, yet it will prove a heavy blow to the Nebraskan for all that. Senator Stewart has been one of the ablest, most consistent and persistent of the silver leaders. But upon all other questions of public policy he is in accord with the Republican party. The term Silver Republican accurately described him. For this reason he was a tower of strength to the cause of Bryan in the West.

When Bryan deliberately abandoned the silver issue after forcing a free coinage plank into the Kansas City platform, and attempted to make expansion the paramount issue, Senator Stewart could no longer keep him company. The single tie that bound them together was broken. This act involved a breach of faith with Bryan's allies and had the effect of destroying their confidence in his sincerity. This breach of faith is aggravated to Senator Stewart's mind by the fact that Bryan went to Washington when the Paris treaty was under consideration and induced enough Democratic Senators to vote for it to insure its ratification. By so doing the Nevada Senator considers that Bryan bound himself to support the terms of that convention.

Senator Stewart quotes Bryan's declaration of his intention, it is clear, to call an extra session of Congress to give the Philippines freedom upon the same terms as Cuba. He also denounces Bryan for promising to attempt to "extend the Monroe doctrine to the Orient." It will be seen that Senator Stewart takes Bryan at his word and accepts his dictum that expansion is the paramount issue. On that issue he is with the President and the Republican party.

It is the same with ex-Senator Mantle of Montana. He was chairman of the Silver Republican organization of that State, but when Bryan made his sudden change of front and abandoned silver for anti-expansion, Mr. Mantle promptly forsook him. He, like Senator Stewart, was disappointed and disgusted. On the question of maintaining the national honor abroad and observing the terms of the country's plighted faith he is in thorough sympathy with the Administration. He says: "To my mind the paramount issue today is the issue of maintaining the honor and dignity of the Nation and the supremacy of its flag wherever it is rightfully floating. It is the issue whether we shall preserve the fruits of all the blood and treasure expended, and all the splendid courage and patriotism exhibited in the cause of humanity and in the defense of undeniable rights, of whether we shall resolutely discharge the great obligations which have devolved upon us, or whether we will abandon our advanced position, throw down our jrrns, cravenly hoist the white flag and admit to the world that we are incapable of solving the problems which confront us."

For the same reason W. S. Stratton, the Colorado mine owner, drops Bryan and returns to the Republican party. These prominent defections are merely symptoms of the great landslide which is now setting in toward McKinley in the mountain States, and which will carry the great body of so-called Silver Republicans back into full fellowship with their party. They have discovered that they have been following a plausible opportunist without fixed conviction or stability of purpose save the pursuit of office.

The Democratic pretense that our Government has a secret understanding with England is only intended to blind the public to the fact that the Filipino rebellion is fed upon the hope of Bryan's election. Aguilalbo's mainstay is the Anti-Imperialist League, which has just adopted an address advocating the election of Bryan. But for the support given it in the United States the Filipino insurrection would long ago have collapsed. The blood and money poured out to restore order in the Philippines are libations on the altars of demagogue politicians, the price exacted to further personal ambition. To offset the notorious and almost undisguised alliance of the Anti-Imperialists with Aguilalbo, the absurd fable of a secret alliance with Great Britain has been invented. The story is as false as the motive behind it is treasonable and dishonest.

A Tennessee mountaineer has discovered a new cure for snake bites. In view of the popularity of the old one in that section it is queer that anything new should have been sought, especially as the latest device is a vegetable and therefore knocks out the standing excuse for carrying a flask.

Field Marshal Waldersee has shipped a house to China in sections, and as the war will probably be over by the time he gets there the move is a sensible one. He will not have to take the field, and might as well be comfortable in a dwelling he is familiar with.

As there is a promise of good crops in Central India, American journals will probably once more concede that British rule is not half a bad thing. John Bull is always secure of his empire when the rain god is on his side.

A milk corporation has just filed its articles showing a capital stock of $100,000, but a subscription of only a few hundred dollars. There should be no surprise, though, at its stock being thoroughly watered.

The German government is sending out a detachment of Berlin policemen to Peking. This indicates that von Waldersee has decided in advance on an indefinite occupation of that city.

The "straw vote" is a good deal like straw bail. There is generally very little in it.

DEATH OF NOTED ARCTIC EXPLORER

Navigated Dr. Kane's Expedition to the Far North.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Captain John Wall Wilson, who was one of the two survivors of the second Grinnell Arctic expedition, is dead at St. John's Hospital, Brooklyn, from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, performed eight months ago. The operation at the time was believed to have been successful, and Captain Wilson appeared to be recovering, until three days ago, when a relapse came, resulting in his death.

Captain Wilson was 69 years of age. He was famous as the navigator of Dr. Kane's expedition into the far north.

The object of the expedition was the relief of Sir John Franklin.

The party left the Brooklyn navy yard in 1853. After three years' suffering at Etah and other points in northern Greenland they were themselves rescued.

Captain Wilson actively took part in no other Arctic expeditions, but his interest in the exploration of the far North has since the days of his suffering been keen. He was one of the oldest members of the Arctic Club.

For gallantry during the early part of the Civil War Captain Wilson was given the commission which he held until 1865, when he resigned from the navy. He was a graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis and was with Admiral Farragut on his attack upon New Orleans.

Upon his resignation from the navy Captain Wilson became interested in commercial enterprises, which occupied his attention until his death.

PROHIBITIONISTS PUT UP A TICKET.

The Prohibitionists have put the following ticket in the field: For Superior Judge, F. W. Sawyer; Supervisor, First District, M. Anthony; Supervisor, Fourth District, T. H. Montgomery; State Senator, O. G. May; for the Assembly: Forty-sixth, F. Russell; Forty-seventh, D. Van Crump; Forty-eighth, Rev. Morris; Forty-ninth, Rev. Wales; Fifteenth, Joseph Humphrey.

The County Central Committee was empowered to fill vacancies.

The following are the delegates to the Prohibition State Convention, which meets in Fresno, August 28th: O. G. May of Berkeley, H. L. Ross, Dr. A. T. Needham, Dr. Frazer, H. W. Stahl, Rev. Morris of Alameda, C. W. Brown.

The new County Central Committee is composed of T. H. Montgomery, Rev. Wales, Mrs. Thompson, R. H. Bard, A. H. Holt, Mrs. Taynton, Professor Crowhurst, Mrs. Brown, Joseph Humphreys, H. W. Stahl, J. P. Hayes, Rev. Arnold, Mrs. Joel Russell and Mrs. T. B. Russell of Hayward, Mrs. Edithon, Professor Durham of Irvington, Rev. Norton of Alameda.

We, the Prohibition party of Alameda county in convention assembled acknowledging the leadings of Almighty God, hereby do declare our unalterable antagonism to this, the supreme evil and parent of all crimes, the liquor traffic. We oppose the union with our Government; the license of our Government; the expansion through our Government, and its domination over our Government.

The message said: "Report operations, situation, requirements."

There is no intention of depreciating Minister Conger; the Government has the liveliest sense of gratitude to him; but it is not deemed expedient to act on his dispatches because, after his terrible experience, he is naturally embittered and possibly unconsciously biased and because he needs and deserves a rest.

It is proposed to have Mr. Conger come home at the first opportunity and enjoy a long period of rest and recuperation.

The message said:

"Resolved, That we indignantly protest against the continued sale of intoxicating liquors in the army canteen in violation of the expressed will of the people as set forth in the law passed by Congress February 27 and 28, 1899.

"Resolved, That we hereby endorse the platform adopted by our National Prohibition Convention in Chicago in July last, and urge all good citizens to cast their ballots in November for John G. Woolley and Henry B. Metcalfe, the candidates nominated by that convention for President and Vice-President of the United States.

"Resolved, That we deeply deplore the great evils existing in our midst, such as the saloon, the brothel and the gambling dens, which are the direct outcome of the liquor traffic, and we urge all voters to cast their ballots for candidates pledged to the overthrow of these evils.

"REV. T. H. WALES, Chairman.
"R. R. BIRD, Secretary.
"Oakland, Cal., Aug. 21, 1900."

KELLY FOUND GUILTY OF GRAND LARCENY.

Patrick Kelly, who was on trial yesterday before Judge Greene and a jury on a charge of grand larceny, was found guilty. The jury arrived at a verdict in less than five minutes. Sentence will be pronounced on August 29.

The defendant was accused by Manuel Rose, a laborer of Sunol, of taking $1,500 from his pockets while he was asleep.

Fell From His Wagon.

J. Frates, a driver for a wholesale butcher firm, was thrown from his wagon in a runaway accident at San Jose Avenue and Grove street yesterday afternoon, and sustained a severe scalp wound, for which he was treated at the Receiving Hospital by Dr. Ewer.

Arraigns Republicans on the Issue of Imperialism.

CONVENTION OF THE CATTLEMEN.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 21.—The Board of Governors of the National Live Stock Association met at here yesterday in this city today for the purpose of fixing the date for the next annual convention, which is to be held in Salt Lake City. There were present: T. J. Wood, Utah; D. N. Sisk, Wyoming; George F. Patrick, Colorado, and Frank John W. Springer and Secretary E. M. Johnson.

Mr. Wood stated that the Salt Lake Committee of Arrangements preferred to have the meeting on January 15, 16, 17 and 18, 1901, and it was unanimously decided to adopt those dates. The committee on transportation requested to make application immediately to the passenger associations for a one fare for the round trip from all points in the United States good for thirty days, also to enter into correspondence with lines west of Salt Lake City with a view of running an express to the Pacific Coast after the adjournment of the convention.

CRUSADE AGAINST NICKEL IN-THE-SLOT MACHINES.

The police will at once begin a crusade against nickel-in-the-slot machines, now that the City Council has refused to license them. Chief Hodgkins this morning issued the following order:

"Captain Wilson and Petersen, Instruct you to immediately close all places to operate any kind of nickel-in-the-slot machine, that they must remove and cease the operation of said slot machine immediately, also instruct all officers to see nothing of them, than the profits of trade with them, than the amount of money you would amount to. The has had been hauled down in Mexico and the Mexican people were better off with their own government than they would be with an American carpet-bug government in Mexico."

Mr. Bryan sharply arraigned the Republican party for its alleged inconsistency in the position formerly taken on the questions of militarism, money and trusts and the position now taken on those questions, and continuing said:

"The great soldiers of the Philippines Islands will lead you into some other places and make you hold these people and make them subjects against their will. The same spirit of militarism and imperialism that carried you to the Philippines will carry you wherever you go, and you will be strong enough to be whipped by the United States. The doctrine of imperialism is the doctrine of the bully and the coward. It is the doctrine which takes people under the pretense that you are taking them for what you can get out of their pockets and rob them while you are taking them. Republicans, your papers tell you that the Filipinos are savages; you do not say it, because you do not arm savages and turn them out to fight people. They say we cannot haul down the flag in the Philippines and it is raised there. Even this Administration does not find any trouble or difficulty in hauling down the flag in Alaska. I suppose they contend that in cold climate you can haul it down, but that you cannot haul it down in the Philippines, that represents the purpose of the American people. Nobody can haul our flag down against our will, but the American people have the right to put it up where they desire. The desire of the people of the nation, the people are not the servants of the flag. If that is true how are you going to bring the American troops back from Peking? They planted the American flag there. I want the American flag to come back from the Philippines Islands in order that the flag of a republic might rise in its place. I would rather that we have two flags representing two republics than one representing an emperor."

SAYS IT IS SIMPLY A RENTING PROPOSITION

The Board of Fire Commissioners this morning asked what had become of the proposition to rent fire engine houses in the Golden Gate and Alameda districts.

It was reported that the matter had been referred to the City Attorney. Mayor Stowell said it was a good proposition, whereupon Mr. Dow remitted officially that if such was the case no legal question was involved. The Mayor expressed a personal opinion that he feared there was an effort to prevent the location of the engines in the districts.

Two rival commercial travelers were trying to sell a merchant a fireproof safe. "The first said to the merchant: A cat was put in one of our safes and the safe was put in the middle of a fire for twenty-four hours, and afterward the cat came out alive." Said the second: "We put a cat in one of our safes, and piled fire around it for a week, and when we opened it the cat was dead." "Ah, I thought so," said the merchant. "Yes" replied the traveler, "he was frozen to death!"

ALLIES' POSITION ONE OF DANGER.

London Pessimists are indulging in dire forebodings.

the authentic news is four days old—and much may have happened since then—the silence of the generals lends color to a Shanghai statement that the wires to Tien Tsin are cut, and may also help to explain the hurried march of the German and Italian reinforcements to Peking.

Assuming that even the sacred city and the palace are captured, the difficulties of the allies are by no means at an end. Their force is, of course, more than sufficient to repel any attack which might be made on them, whether by Boxers or by imperial troops, but when it is remembered that they have to police the great straggling city of Peking, with its million inhabitants, and to keep open the line of communication to the coast, their strength is by no means excessive, even if it is sufficient for the work in hand.

Besides, the allied generals, like Lord Roberts in South Africa, may have advanced too fast to effectively occupy the country behind them. The speed of their march was rendered necessary by the position of the legations, for if the relief column had taken three or four days longer on the journey it might have come too late. Still, if the Chinese troops defeated at Peitang and Yang Tsun should form up again between the capital and Tien Tsin, the allies will either have to march back to disperse them or to wait till that task is performed by reinforcements from the coast, and meanwhile may find themselves virtually besieged in Peking.

The pessimists, too, are additionally depressed by Minister Conger's testimony as to the conduct of the Chinese government, and his opinion that the whole movement was got up by the imperial authorities, and that the Boxers were a mere pretense. On the other hand, it is admitted that if the Empress and the Manchu princes, and particularly Tuan, have been captured the outlook is much more hopeful, since it will be possible to find responsible Chinese authorities on whom new arrangements can be imposed. The action of the Southern Viceroy, too, shows that the campaign in the north has had an excellent effect in checking the further spread of anti-foreign agitation.

The Chinese Minister here has handed to the Foreign Office for transmission to Lord Salisbury Li Hung Chang's note suggesting that a plenipotentiary should be appointed to negotiate with him. His communication is couched in a tone of cool assumption, which excites a certain amount of indignation. The Times and other papers had articles angrily denouncing Li and suggesting that no notice should be taken of him. The aged Viceroy is profoundly distrusted by what may be called the Anglo-Chinese colony here, which is not without influence on the Foreign Office. It is urged that there is no proof that Li is not playing for his own hand, rather than genuinely endeavoring to extricate China from her difficulties. His influence has for some time past been overshadowed by the violent reactionary Manchu party, and he may now be trying to get even with his enemies, or, again, if he is volunteering his services the powers may find that as soon as peace is patched up and the allied contingents withdrawn Li will be repudiated, as has happened before, on the ground that he has exceeded his authority. It is also said that Li dislikes England more than any other European nation and has more than a preference for Russia. It is, therefore, thought that if possible, negotiations should take place in Peking and Li's intervention be dispensed with. But this, of course, again depends on the possibility of finding anybody in Peking to negotiate with.

In the first place it is pointed out that the Admiral does not profess to have heard the news officially from General Gaselee, but only gives it on the authority of reports current at Taku, and we know by this time what reports in Chinese towns are worth; secondly, even if

DYNAMITE USED BY THE ALLIES.

Blew Up the Walls in the Attack on Peking.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

Some more particulars are published of the attack on Peking by the allies. The Shanghai correspondent of the Mail says that the walls were blown up with dynamite.

Fears are entertained lest the communiques of the allies in Peking with Tien Tsin should have been cut, as Chinese forces are reported in the neighborhood of Peitang.

Statements are made in Paris to the effect that French troops now on their way to the Far East will not go to Taku, but will be disembarked in Tongkin.

The reply of the United States Government to the offer of Li Hung Chang to negotiate undoubtedly, says the Times, represents the position which all the powers concerned have agreed to take up.

CHICAGO LABOR WAR ON AGAIN.

Building Trades Council to Call Out All Its Members.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Unless the plans of the leaders miscarry, every union man connected with the Building Trades Council will be called out on strike before Labor Day. The plumbers have already been ordered out, and it is the intention that all other unions whose men are working shall follow suit. Owing to increased activity in the building trades within the last few days many union men have been put to work, in some places with the consent of the business agents, and it is the purpose of the unions to stop the work wherever the bosses believed they had won a victory and show them that the labor organizations are still in the fight.

The business agent of one of the largest unions in the building trades said:

"The contractors have come to believe that it is comparatively easy sailing for them now, and accordingly have been undertaking some large jobs with the idea that there would be no further trouble from the unions. They will find to their disgust that many of the men whom they supposed to be non-union have become members of the unions and they will simply be unable to do any work. It is the only thing that is left the unions unless they propose to give up their right." The idea of helping the contractors along in their jobs has been a mistake which is generally recognized now, and they will find there is a lot of fight left among the men yet."

"I arrived at the Grand Central station about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 15th, from the White Mountains," he said. "I had not heard of the riots then going on, and I started for my home.

"I got to Forty-first street when a mob of white men seized me, crying: There's another of the black devils. They knocked me down. I got up and ran north to Forty-third street, the mob following me all the way. They caught

One of New York Mob's
Victims a British Subject.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The Herald prints the following:

International complications may follow the negro riots. Alfred Akins, a British subject, who was one of the victims of the mob and later of police outrages, has appealed to the British Consul for redress.

Akins is a parlor car porter, and while he was on his way to his home from the Grand Central station, ignorant of the race war they going on, he was beaten and almost killed by whites. He was rescued by policemen, but barely escaped even rougher treatment at the hands of the police.

Akins is about 30 years old and a native of Kingston, Jamaica. He is employed by the New York, New Haven and Hartford road. He described his experience yesterday.

"I arrived at the Grand Central station about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 15th, from the White Mountains," he said. "I had not heard of the riots then going on, and I started for my home.

"I got to Forty-first street when a mob of white men seized me, crying: There's another of the black devils. They knocked me down. I got up and ran north to Forty-third street, the mob following me all the way. They caught
